Stables—Owners of Animals to Register with Board of Health. (Ord.
2570, July 13, 1915.)

SECTION 1. That it shall be the duty of every person engaged in the sale or storage of foodstuffs and every other thing susceptible of human consumption, as food, within the limits of the city of New Orleans, to, within 10 days after the promulgation of this ordinance, file in the office of the board of health for the parish of Orleans and the city of New Orleans, on a blank especially prepared for this purpose, the following information: Name of owner; business and residence address of owner; character of business carried on, and such other information as the board may deem necessary for the enforcement of proper sanitary regulations on premises.

SEC. 2. That after the promulgation of this ordinance it shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the sale or storage of foodstuffs or other things susceptible of human consumption, as food, within the city of New Orleans, without having previously obtained a permit to conduct such business from the board of health for the parish of Orleans and the city of New Orleans.

SEC. 3. That every person within the limits of the city of New Orleans, having one or more horses or mules housed or stabled within the city of New Orleans, shall file with the board of health for the parish of Orleans and the city of New Orleans, on a blank especially prepared for this purpose by the board of health, the following information: Name of owner; number and kind of animals housed or stabled on premises; address of place (street and number) where animals are stabled, and such other information as the board may deem necessary for the enforcement of proper sanitary regulations on the premises.

SEC. 4. That the board of health for the parish of Orleans and the city of New Orleans is hereby invested with the authority and charged with the duty to enforce the provisions of this ordinance and to prosecute all persons charged with violating the same, and to that end its officers, members, agents, employees, inspectors, and appointees shall have the right to enter any premise or place, or any car, conveyance, or other vehicle in the city of New Orleans for the purpose of inspection for violations thereof.

SEC. 5. That for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this ordinance the word "person" is hereby defined to mean an individual, an association of individuals, a copartnership, and a corporation. That when an association of individuals is charged with the violation of any provision of this ordinance, each individual of such association of individuals, or, if a foreign association of individuals, the local agent or person locally in charge thereof, shall be deemed to represent such association of individuals for the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, and shall be held responsible and punishable for each violation thereof; and when a firm is charged with such violation each member thereof, and if a foreign firm the local agent or person locally in charge of said firm, shall be deemed to represent such firm for the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, and shall be held responsible and punishable for each violation thereof; and when a corporation shall be charged with such violation, the president, or, in his absence, the vice president, or, in the absence of both, the officer or individual in charge of such corporation, or, if a foreign corporation, the local agent, or person locally in charge thereof, shall be deemed to represent such corporation for the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, and shall be held responsible and punishable for each violation thereof.

SEC. 6. That any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $25, or, in default of payment, by imprisonment in the parish jail for not less than 10 days nor more than 30 days, or both, in the discretion of the recorder having jurisdiction of the same.

Foodstuffs—Name of Owner Must be Displayed in Buildings and on Vehicles Containing Foodstuffs or Substances which May Become Offensive. (Ord. 2566, July 13, 1915.)

SECTION 1. That the owner or proprietor of every hotel, boarding, lodging, and rooming house, barroom, café, blacksmith shop, restaurant, ice-cream manufactory or shop, dairy and place where milk is kept or held for sale, storehouse, warehouse, cold-storage plant, bakery, confectionery, hide shop, tannery, distillery, brewery, laboratory, soap boiler, chandlery, rendering plant, candy store, fish, cake, crab, shrimp, game, poultry, meat, vegetable, flower, and plant store, stall, or stand, oyster shop, stable, vidanguer, undertaker, cannery, and every place, stand, and stall in markets, public and private, and all other places where any product or thing which may be used for public consumption, or anything which is or may become dangerous to public health, is stored, manufactured, canned, bottled, or otherwise put up, or held or exposed for sale, shall cause to be displayed in such establishment, store, shop, or place, in a conspicuous place, a sign, containing thereon, in large legible letters, the name of the owner or proprietor thereof.

SEC. 2. That the owner or proprietor of any wagon, dray, autocart, or other vehicle which is used, at any time, for the carriage or conveyance of any product or thing which may be used for human consumption, or anything which is or may become dangerous to public health, shall cause to be displayed on each such wagon, dray, autocart, or other vehicle, in a conspicuous place thereon, a sign, containing thereon, in large, legible letters, the name of the owner or proprietor of each such wagon, dray, autocart, or other vehicle.

SEC. 3. That should the owner or proprietor of such establishment, store, shop, or place, or vehicle, be a corporation, then the name of such corporation, with the name of its president or other responsible officer, shall be displayed on the signs hereinabove provided for.

SEC. 4. That any person, firm, or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject to a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $25, or imprisonment in the parish prison for a term of not less than 5 or more than 30 days, or both, at the discretion of the recorder having jurisdiction of the same.

SEC. 5. That, for the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, any person who shall be found in charge in any establishment, store, shop, or place of any such product or thing that may be used for human consumption or anything which is or may become dangerous to the public health, whether in the raw state or cooked, and the driver of any wagon, dray, autocart, or other vehicle which is used at any time for the carriage or conveyance of any product or thing which is or may become dangerous to the public health, in the raw state or cooked, shall be deemed to be the owner thereof and shall be held responsible for any violations of this or any other law or ordinance enacted for the protection of the public health. That when a firm is charged with such violation each member thereof and, if a foreign firm, the local agent or person locally in charge of said firm shall be deemed to represent such firm for the purpose of enforcing this ordinance and shall be held responsible and punishable for each violation thereof; and when a corporation shall be charged with such violation the president, or, in his absence, the vice president, or, in the absence of both, the officer or individual in charge of such corporation, or, if a foreign corporation, the local
